

Freshtoday rolls out hot meals scheme to St John of God school in the Faythe

The St John of God primary school in the Faythe is the first one in Wexford town to get the Freshtoday meals under the Hot Meals Scheme.

ENNISCORTHY based business Freshtoday is rolling out a Hot Meals Scheme in schools across the country as part of a Government funded initiative and the first school in Wexford town to avail of the service is the Faythe National School.

Principal, Marie Rossiter-Gargan, the staff and parents are excited about the initiative which will see every student in the school receive a hot meal every day from Monday, January 10, 2022.

“We are delighted to have been awarded the funding and are really looking forward to having hot meals as a part of each school day, for all of our pupils,” said Ms Rossiter-Gargan.

Freshtoday, has been heavily involved in implementing the switch to hot food in schools throughout Ireland and speaking about the transition the company’s managing director, Brian McGee, said that for the last 10 years children in Deis schools have been provided with nutritious cold lunches.
